

International Colloquium on

Narrative, Cognition & Evolution

Tuesday, 8 May 2012

1pm – 4pm

Jeppe Vontillius Auditorium (Lakeside Lecture Theatres)

- | | | |
|-----------|---|---|
| 1.00-1.20 | Professor Peter C. Kjærgaard:
Aarhus University | It Runs in the Family:
Getting the Human Story Right |
| 1.20-1.40 | Professor Blakey Vermeule:
Stanford University | Confabulations |
| 1.40-2.00 | Lecturer Marcus Nordlund:
Gothenburg University | What Makes a Good Book?
Panhuman, Cultural, and
Individual Perspectives |
| 2.00-2.30 | BREAK | |
| 2.30-2.50 | Professor Armin W. Geertz:
Aarhus University | Evolution, Cognition, Religion &
Narrative |
| 2.50-3.10 | Postdoc Stefaan Blancke:
Ghent University | The Creationist Seduction:
On the Mind's Intuitive
Preference for Creationist
Beliefs |
| 3.10-3.30 | Assistant Prof. Casper Andersen:
Aarhus University | Homo Habilis:
The Engineering World and
UNESCO Man |
| 3.30-4.00 | DISCUSSION | |

The colloquium is open to everybody, no registration needed

Hosted by

Interdisciplinary Evolutionary Studies, the Department of Aesthetics and Communication and the Department of Culture and Society

